

FULL MOON HEALING

Tonight, I am happy and grateful for this opportunity to acknowledge and accept this existing situation of my life.

Tonight, I am willing to understand and accept that this particular situation is keeping me stuck and imprisoned in my own thoughts, patterns and stories.

Tonight, I am also willing to accept that somewhere, somehow and for some karmic reason, I was one of the co-creators for this situation.

And now, I am willing to work on dissolving the vibrational essence of this situation by offering it to the Full Moon so that the healing energies of the Moon wash it, cleanse it, purify it and recycle it back to its pure essence of love and light.

As the Full Moon shall fade every night for the next fortnight, the energy of this existing situation shall weaken, break, wear off, dissolve and finally get converted into the nothingness of space where only consciousness prevails and mirrors back to me what I am willing to offer to this Full Moon.

I now offer this existing situation to the Full Moon with my heartfelt gratitude, sincere appreciation, positive thoughts and an empowering flow of breath and life force energies.

I also offer kindness, compassion, forgiveness and an understanding to myself and the other person or situation in consideration so that all are blessed with the wisdom to move forward and reach a dignified, mature, peaceful and harmonious conclusion to this karmic life lesson.

And we all are directed to experience the pure consciousness of love and light as soon as possible.

I now offer this situation to the element of the holy fire of the universe for purification.

Thank you to the Full Moon.

Thank you to my Guardian Angels.

Thank you to the Universal Energies.

Once again, I am very grateful that I get this opportunity to work with the Full Moon with my own heart and awareness !

I now offer this situation to the element of the salty oceanic water of this planet for purification.