

INVOCATION

Any disempowering memory, traumatic experience, destructive happening, exploitative transaction, repetitive pattern and any other form or kind of bad feeling situation or energetic lock of this and any other lifetime with this person (name of the person) is now disintegrated, dissolved and forgotten and remembered no more by every cell in my body as it is merged into the white bright light of the FULL MOON with love, peace and freedom for both of us !

SURRENDER PRAYER

Dear Full Moon Goddess,

I have done my best. I now stop running in circles, relax, let go and stop trying to control this person or situation. I turn over my request to you and urge you to solve it along with the deeper creative darkness of the NEW MOON !
