

(1) I live, move and have my being in God. God is the Life Principle in me and I know very well that I AM alive to the fact and God is the Progenitor or the Father of all and so the God Energy, moves, and has its being and essence in me.

(2) I AM the temple of the Living God. God lives in me. I am immersed in the Divine Presence Which surrounds me, enfolds me and enwraps me.

(3) My mind is God's mind and my Spirit is the Spirit of God. This Infinite Being within me is the Only Presence and the Only Power. It cannot be defeated, thwarted or frustrated in any way.

(4) There is nothing to oppose It, challenge It, thwart It or neutralize It. It's Almighty. It moves as unity. There are no divisions or quarrels in It. It is all powerful and all wise. It is present everywhere.

(5) As I unite mentally with this Infinite Power through my thoughts, I know I am greater than any problem. I overcome courageously all the difficulties and problems knowing they are Divinely outmatched, and whatever strength, power and creative ideas I need are automatically being given to me by the Divine Intelligence within me.

(6) I know the Infinite lies stretched in smiling repose within me, where all is bliss, harmony and peace. I am now in tune with the Infinite, and its wisdom, power and intelligence become active and potent in my life. This is the law of my being, and I know God's peace fills my soul.

(7) I know I can't think of two things at the same time. I can't think of failure and dwell upon success at the same time in my mind. As I surrender to the WILL of GOD, my justice and joy appears to me in full measure. And I am so grateful and thankful for the same.
