

Through Divine Grace and Intelligence, we are able to either get the best rental income from our house located at _____ or we are able to sell the property at the best possible price properly and on time. The blessings of the Divine Intelligence shower on us and the person who rents or purchases this property from us. All of us are satisfied with this wonderful opportunity.