"My business / profession is full of right action and right expression. The ideas, money, merchandise, and contacts that I require are mine now and at all times. All these things are irresistibly attracted to me by the laws of universal attraction and vibration. God is the life of my business. I am Divinely guided and inspired in all ways. Every day I am presented with wonderful opportunities to grow, expand and progress. I am building up goodwill. I am a great success because I do business with others as I would have them do it with me."
